

The Universidad de Castilla-La Mancha (UCLM) has an ethics committee, specifically a Social Research Ethics Committee (CEIS), that reviews research involving human participants, ensuring ethical standards like informed consent and data privacy are met

Institutional Ethics Committees (CEIs): Spanish universities and affiliated hospitals have dedicated committees that assess research protocols involving humans, ensuring patient rights and welfare are protected.